Kingsbury Texas

News & Information Newsletter

Dear Kingsbury,

Here's the latest on what's going on in Kingsbury!

Martin Luther King, Jr. Day

Officially called Birthday of Martin Luther King, Jr. (and sometimes referred to as MLK Day), it is an American federal holiday marking the birthday of Martin Luther King Jr. It is observed on the third Monday of January each year, which is around King's birthday, January 15.

King was the chief spokesperson for nonviolent activism in the Civil Rights Movement, which successfully protested racial discrimination in federal and state law. The campaign for a federal holiday in King's honor began soon after his assassination in 1968. President Ronald Reagan signed the holiday into law in 1983, and it was first observed three years later. At first, some states resisted observing the holiday as such, giving it alternative names or combining it with other holidays. It was officially observed in all 50 states for the first time in 2000.

Kingsbury City Limits

Do you have property in the Kingsbury area but not in the official Kingsbury city limits? Would you like it to be a part of the new city of Kingsbury? Let Kingsbury know! It's a simple "Voluntary Annexation" petition form to fill out and you can be on the list to be part of our Kingsbury. Check out the "Kingsbury City Limits" page on the Kingsbury website to see the current map, get a petition form, and find more information on voluntary annexations.

Also, check out the Kingsbury "Blog" to see pictures of the first voluntary annexations! Need more information? Just fill out the "Contact" page on the Kingsbury website and a city official will get it to you. It's so easy!

Kingsbury T-Shirts - Now Available Online!

You can now order your awesome Kingsbury T-Shirt online and have it arrive at your door! Just go to the Kingsbury website and click "SHOP" and select the items you want. Pay with a credit card or PayPal and then just wait for your new, fabulous Kingsbury wear to come to you!

The new Kingsbury T-Shirts have a graphic of downtown Kingsbury on Railway street and the Kingsbury logo: LIVING. SIMPLY. WELL.

That says it all, doesn't it?!

They're $20 and are available in blue, pink, turquoise, red, and the classic black.

The Kingsbury depot T-shirts are also available on the website in the Kingsbury Shoppe that have an image of the old Kingsbury Depot that stood next to the tracks across from the old Post Office. One of the steam locomotives that used to stop here in Kingsbury is shown idling next to the depot, waiting for the next car load of cattle or travelers to New Orleans or San Francisco. The image includes the original writing at the bottom of the picture: "Depot KiNGsbury TEX." The back of the shirt has the Kingsbury logo "LIVING. SIMPLY. WELL." and the Kingsbury website.

They're a bargain at just $10!

Visit the Kingsbury website at www.kingsburytexas.org to get your new T-shirt sent to you today!

Kingsbury News Past

All the news that's fit to print about what was happening in Kingsbury . . .

The Thursday, October 21, 1875 edition of the Galveston Daily News had the latest schedule for the "Sunset Route" where the "Trains are now Running to Kingsbury" and reducing the length of the stagecoach ride from there (the end of the railroad track at that time) to S.A. - probably to the Menger Hotel.

Between the train and the stagecoach you could get from Galveston to San Antonio in "Only 26 Hours"! I guess that was makin' good time in 1875!

In other news, the Courtwright brothers killed the sheriff in Chicago and then got strung up themselves for it by "forty masked men" and several people in Philadelphia have been counterfeiting postage stamps to Guinea and Bavaria (was that a lucrative thing in 1875?), Arthur Wolff, M.D. at the Grand Southern Hotel is a "surgeon and accoucheur" (had to look that one up - an accoucheur is a male midwife), and Cooper, Bailey & Co. has "herds of wild and strange beasts" and "freaks and whimsies thrown in". Cooper and Bailey would eventually merge with P.T. Barnum and become Barnum & Bailey's Circus.

Head on over to John Mulligan's if you need "oyster knives" (and who doesn't?!), Ricker & Wilder has "30 head fine large Kentucky mules", Broussard's has a "large stock" with "hard time prices" (but only if you're buying C.O.D.), and Peter Mueller can sharpen your razors and "surgical instruments".

And Kauffman & Runge has a LOT of coffee and salt, New Orleans has the "epizootic" (had to look that one up too - it means a non-human epidemic), and Garsia & Co. has "Texas, Western and Tropical Products" and will give you "prompt attention" to your orders for lemons and oranges.

CRIMINALITIES.

Hanged by a Mob.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—A week ago Sheriff Baker, of Portage county, Illinois, was killed by two brothers named Courtwright, whom the sheriff attempted to eject from a building. Forty masked men took the Courtwrights from Stevens Point jail and hanged them.

Counterfeiting Postage Stamps.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—Several persons had a hearing before a United States commissioner for counterfeiting postage stamps on Nicaragua, Greece, Guinea and Bavaria.

Troops of Variegated Horses, herds of wild and strange beasts from every land under the sun, flocks of birds from every latitude wherein bird-life is possible, a little of everything smaller than a whale that inhabits the ocean from ice to ice as deep as plummet sounds—a Noah's ark with the variations, and such freaks and whimsies thrown in as Nature occasionally delights in, just to show that she has not exhausted her resources, and did not reach the limit of absurdity when she produced the average man—all these covered with acres of canvas as with a garment; the whole controlled by one mind, acting upon a regiment of assistants and well drilled subordinates—this is Cooper, Bailey & Co.'s Great International Allied Shows. The only thing to complain of is that there is too much of it to be seen in one day.—Indianapolis News.
